Dear Dr. Robinson,

If you will pardon the type-writer, I will add a few lines in this letter of acknowledgment.

Last night I went to the hospital to see Corinne McClelland. She is doing very well indeed, and is as bright and cheery as possible. She is very fond of you and spoke of the "nice letter" you wrote to her. She says she is going to keep it always. Her room was a bower of roses. As soon as she can be moved they are going to take her to Seaside Park. She thought that is the place.

I hear on all sides how much you are missed. People seem to like Dr. Kennedy, but that does not prevent them from thoughts of your ministry, and of your kind and genial ways. Last Sunday Sabbath School started its morning sessions. Mr. Ireland said there were three more pupils than on the same date last year. I have charge of the Junior Dep't. The interest is good. The daily vacation Bible School commenced July 6th, with Miss Leamy and her sister in charge. I have not heard as yet what the attendance is.

Mrs. White, Miss VanDerveer, Sara McH., and Ella Keys are together in a cottage at Christmas Cove. They are enjoying the cool weather and "trying to get rested".

I hope you and Mrs. Robinson are well and happy. Give my love to Mrs. Robinson.

As ever

Cordially yours,

Matilda H. Turner

My dear Dr. Robinson —

We were so glad to receive the message from you. Isn't it strange? I've intended writing to you for the past month or so. I'm almost positive that some of my thoughts must have gone off to you telepathically.

I just want to tell you that we think of you so often and this morning, I went to church with a heavy heart, knowing that Northminster now has a Pastor and you are not the one.
Indeed I shall always remember your genial personality and your sympathetic and understanding way of delivering yr sermons and your keen insight into human hearts. There are people and people but few that are real and also of distinctive type.

How is Mrs Robinson? We miss her, too. When is she coming to Philadelphia?

I wish you both a cheery holiday season.

Cordially Ever
"Little Fellow"

West Philadelphia Hospital
March twenty fifth,

Dear neighbor & friend — How can I ever tell you how much your warm friendship and kind words mean to your "happy little neighbor" as you so generously call me! Your beautiful letter touched Mr. Simons & me so much — and indeed you make me feel a great responsibility and a warm gratitude to our Heavenly Father for giving me a happy disposition and if I can spread sunshine, as you say, I must always remember it as a duty. Our little Warren is already such a joy to us and has started to gain already - and I am feeling so well & radiant, and reveling in the beautiful rest & care here.

What fun our little man and Norac Hill 3rd will have playing together on the [illegible] pavement - but oh how we are going to miss you — I am hoping so much that you won't be gone before we get back to 3418 — I imagine your flock persuaded you to stay over Easter with them.

If you are here for a little longer Baby Simons, daddie & I would be so happy to have you come take a peek at us — but if you leave soon please take our very best wishes and warmest thoughts and hopes for you in your new work —

Remember me to Mrs. Robinson — and again thanks you most heartily and sincerely for your beautiful letter to us —

Always Sincerely

Eunice Schopp Simms

(Mrs. Harry M.)
